Iowa Elks President Roger McQueen and his wife First Lady Julie are pictured following his installation at the Spring Elks Convention in Des Moines. Attending the formal occasion and representing the Shenandoah Elks Lodge were over 40 members and guests. They also were present for the Memorial Service and a Banquet held Saturday evening in the Iowa banquet room of the Holiday Inn Airport followed by the Grand Ball attended by over 300 Elk members and guests. McQueen will serve as president for the 2015-16 year. Ken Swank who served the 2014-15 year for the state organization as Vice President Iowa Southwest was in charge of the Southwest Iowa hospitality room during the recent state convention. Swank has been designated Esquire for the SWI district during the 2015-16 year by the Elks Grand Lodge. Shenandoah lodge members Bob Iske and Alan Armstrong received the president's appointments of State Chaplain and Sergeant of Arms respectively for the 2015-16 year.

More Reports at the State Convention

- > Grand Lodge has released an additional $139,000 to local Elks lodges in Iowa to be used only for two-year community college degrees.
- > Memberships of the Iowa lodges showed a loss for the past year of about 300 members. This is an improvement over previous years when losses were over 900 members.
- > Lodges were encouraged to take advantage of the many scholarships offered by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.
- > Grant money is also available to all lodges. Shenandoah lodge has been active is using the money, however many lodges throughout the state don't.
