OUR Lodge Reports of Committees

A Report from our Exalted Ruler – Dennis Gates

First of July, Sharon and I attended the Elks National convention and celebrated along with 10,000 others the 150th anniversary of Elks. Great time and great people. Will report at lodge meeting later this year.

What is Kentucky burgoo? Who wrote "America the Beautiful" and the music for it? What is a catastrophic headache? To screen or not to screen: Prostate Cancer Testing? Who is Timothy Middleton? What were the Elks scholars doing at the convention? Who produced the Tropical Chocolate Bar? Who was Samuel Langley?

Questions can be found in the last two Elks magazines. Lots of great articles.

Have you seen the Elks information posted on the bulletin out front. 3,300 deer skins collected by Iowa Elks. Second in the nation behind Missouri.

We need your ideas for activities at the Elks, let the officers know.

A Report from our Lodge Club Manager – Doug McElroy

Vol-un-teer – 1) One who offers his/her services of their own free will. 2) To give freely of your time.

Volunteering will help make or break organizations by keeping expenses down! So when ask to help, PLEASE think about helping out!
